

Air Affair

August 19, 2008, by Penny Parker

The thousands of out-of-towners flocking to the DNC will need to get used to the thin air up there. I've seen the Mile High City force many entertainers to slip backstage for a hit of oxygen.

But DNC-goers and media members will have access to a boost of big O. Inside the media tent on the grounds of the Pepsi Center, The Denver Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau will provide free puffs of air for anyone with a media credential.

And Oxygen Plus (ironically a Minneapolis-based company) will set up a booth outside the Hyatt Regency Denver Convention Center Hotel giving out free samples and selling canisters of their products. The booth will be set up for samples and sales from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday through Aug. 28.
